
All 26 urban concentrations met the inclusion criteria (complete exposure data, valid gestational age and birth weight in at least 90% of live births, at least 1,000 events, and model convergence).